

Description of Dataset

We will use data provided by the Foursquare API using their location services. We will explore the city of Istanbul, Turkey. We will further explore the neighborhoods in the city and group them according to the top venues which include restaurants, cafes, hotels and other public places to visit.